

THE MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM FINAL FOUR APPEARANCE

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, today, it is with great admiration that I congratulate the Marquette University Men's Basketball Team on their accomplishment in making it to the Final Four of this year's NCAA Basketball Tournament. Their season was extremely impressive and made folks proud to be from Wisconsin.

This was Marquette's third trip to the Final Four. Their first trip was in 1974, and they won the NCAA Championship in 1977. Their hard work and perseverance carried them into this prestigious position, which undoubtedly honored the instillings of Al McGuire, who was the coach from 1964 to 1977 and represents the spirit of this basketball program. With this great accomplishment, Marquette's coach Tom Crean graduates to the honors bestowed on this program in years past and has ignited the strong traditions of success that have long been a part of Marquette.

I take great pride in recognizing the Marquette University Men's Basketball Team in their attainment of a spot in the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament. I wish Coach Crean and the Marquette University basketball team all the best. Wisconsin is very proud.

HONORING DONNELL D. ETZWILER, M.D.

• Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I rise today to honor a great American and a most distinguished Minnesotan, Donnell D. Etzwiler, M.D., as he receives the National Institute of Health Policy's Health Care Leadership Award.

Donnell D. Etzwiler, M.D., earned a Doctor of Medicine from Yale University School of Medicine in 1953. He practiced as a pediatrician specializing in diabetes care at the Park Nicollet Clinic in Minneapolis, Minnesota from 1957 to 1996.

In 1967, Dr. Etzwiler founded the International Diabetes Center, IDC, in Minnesota where he served as its President and Chief Medical Officer until 1996. The IDC's mission is to ensure that every individual with diabetes or at risk for diabetes receives the best possible care. Under Dr. Etzwiler's three decades of leadership, the IDC trained over 12,000 health professionals, including hundreds from other countries, including Japan, Poland, Russia, Mexico, and Brazil. Dr. Etzwiler's dedication to his pediatric patients resulted in the IDC organizing and hosting the First International Symposium on Diabetes Camps in 1974. This important group significantly contributed to the establishment of standards and accreditation for diabetes camp programs.

Donnell D. Etzwiler, M.D. served as President of the American Diabetes Association from 1976 to 1977. From 1982 to 1994, Dr. Etzwiler served as a Principal Investigator for the National Institutes of Health Diabetes Control and Complications Trial, a landmark study that showed that keeping blood glucose levels as close to normal as possible slows the onset and progression of eye, kidney, and nerve diseases caused by diabetes.

Dr. Etzwiler's commitment to improving diabetes care was international in scope. From 1986 to 1994 he served as the Chairman of the Diabetes Collaborating Centers for the World Health Organization in Geneva, Switzerland. In 1994, the Russian Government, awarded Dr. Etzwiler a Peace Award for co-founding and co-directing the International Diabetes Programme in Russia from 1989 to 1997.

Dr. Etzwiler was extensively involved in professional medical associations, where he served in numerous leadership positions. He was a member of the Institute of Medicine. He has received over 30 hours and awards from professional and civic organizations, including the Charles H. Best Medal for Distinguished Service in 1994 from the American Diabetes Association. A Professor of Medicine for over 40 years, Dr. Etzwiler has published over 180 articles and abstracts about diabetes care.

Today, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring this great man. Through his commitment and compassion, Dr. Donnell D. Etzwiler has improved health care both nationally and internationally for people with diabetes. Thanks to Don, people—especially children—with diabetes live happier and healthier lives. •

RECOGNIZING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF STUDENTS AT GRACE KING HIGH SCHOOL IN THE WE THE PEOPLE COMPETITION

• Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, on April 26, 2003, more than 1,200 students from across the United States will visit Washington, DC to compete in the national finals of the We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution program, the most extensive educational program in the country developed specifically to educate young people about the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Administered by the Center for Civic Education, the We the People program is funded by the U.S. Department of Education by act of Congress.

I am proud to announce that the class from Grace King High School from Metairie will represent the State of Louisiana in this national event. These young scholars, led by their teacher Jamie Staub, have worked conscientiously to reach the national finals by participating at local and statewide competitions. As a result of their experience they have gained a deep knowledge and understanding of the fundamental principles and values of our constitutional democracy.

The 3-day We the People national competition is modeled after hearings in the United States Congress. The hearings consist of oral presentations by high school students before a panel of adult judges on constitutional topics. The students are given an opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge while they evaluate, take, and defend positions on relevant historical and contemporary issues. Their testimony is followed by a period of questioning by the judges who probe the students' depth of understanding and ability to apply their constitutional knowledge.

The class from Grace King High School is currently preparing for their participation in the national competition in Washington, DC. It is inspiring to see these young people advocate the fundamental ideals and principles of our Government, ideas that identify us as a people and bind us together as a nation. It is important for future generations to understand these values and principles, which we hold as standards in our endeavor to preserve and realize the promise of our constitutional democracy. I wish these young "constitutional experts" the best of luck at the We the People national finals. •
